Alan has recently directed and/or written several plays for Yellow Leaf Theatre Company – of which he is co-founder

Alan also has an extensive CV for his directorial experience, which embraces his work as an Associate Director at Manchester Library Theatre and freelance productions. Using his wide knowledge of - and fascination for - Music Hall he has written and directed Panto and holiday shows for many Headliners at Theatres throughout the country. He has also organised and taught workshops in various aspects of Theatre Production and Acting. His expertise has been exploited for voice-overs, corporate and training videos, and CD ROM games.
